Good afternoon Mark,

I am the planning agent for application 24/04176/FUL in Tilstock.

I have just reviewed the application portal and note that under the consultee comments section, it is as of today suggesting that comments have been received from yourself at Highways, but have been superseded.

To date there have been no published comments from Highways for this scheme.

Please could you advise if comments have been provided to the case officer and if so, even if the intention is for additional comments to be made, provide those sent to date without delay?

Many thanks,

Sarah
