Q8: Please specify your reason for supporting or objecting. If you are objecting, you should make clear why the document is unsound having regard to the issues of 'legal compliance' or whether the document is not positively prepared, justified, effective or not consistent with national policy.

The SAMDev Plan states that the 'Existing Reserve at Operational & Committed Sites' is 8.96 million tonnes, where this is "the mineral which could be produced at maximum output during the period 2012-2026".

Within this allocation is an allowance in respect of minerals at Barnsley Lane. The reserve allocated to Barnsley Lane is understood to be in excess of 1.5 million tonnes.

Barnsley Lane is a historic permission for extraction granted in 2004 subject to a s106 agreement that was not resolved. Since 2004 it is known that operator interest has been surrendered at Barnsley Lane due to a proven doubt over the quality of winnable mineral. This decision was made following an exercise of intrusive exploratory works in 2011 by the previous encumbant operator company. The SAMDev does not take into account that the allocation at Barnsley Lane has since been proven as being largely barren and a commercially non-viable prospect.

This issue of Barnsley Lane demonstrating its viability is further compounded by split legal title of the surface land and underlying mineral along with a right of way being required over a third party's landholding in order to legitimately access and egress the proposed working area. At the date of writing, it is understood that no rights exist in favour of a mineral operator being afforded the ability to occupy land at Barnsley Lane, win/work minerals or export product via the preferred means of access across neighbouring land.

For geological and occupational/access/legal reasoning, there has to be some considerable doubt as to whether Barnsley Lane represents a deliverable mineral prospect suitable for allocation within the SAMDev.

Q9: Explain the changes you think should be made to the SAMdev Plan in order to make it legally compliant or sound. You should explain your suggested revisions to the policy, paragraph or section of the policies map and why this change would make the plan legally compliant or sound. Please be as precise as possible.

Minerals at Canebuff have previously been excluded from the SAMDev in recognition of Barnsley Lane serving as a preferred alternative.

Canebuff represents a proven and long established mineral prospect capable of serving the requirements of the SAMDev over the coming plan period. The Council have previously recognised the evidence base for establishing the Canebuff land as a valid mineral resource and no material change of circumstances has since occurred to detract from such evidence base

Whereas there are recognisable issues as to the ownership arrangement at Barnsley Lane and the ability of securing the rights of access and working to exploit mineral at this location, it can be confirmed on behalf of the owners of the land and mineral at Canebuff (the Baker family and the Murray family) that support in principle is offered to the occupation of their landholding for the purpose of exploiting and exporting the demonstrable resource of mineral beneath.
